CONFERENCE OF COLORED METHODISTS

Is in Session at African Methodist Episcopal Church in This City.

The district conference of the West Virginia annual conference of the African Methodist Episcopal church, convening at Prid's Chapel African Methodist Episcopal church, opened Wednesday at 10:30 a. m.

After appropriate devotional services led by the Rev. W. W. Brown, B. S. D. D., the annual sermon was delivered by Presiding Elder R. R. Downs, D. D.

After the sermon the following officers were elected in the organization: President, the Rev. F. Herman Gow, of Charleston; secretary, the Rev. W. E. Gibbons, of Ceredo; and the Rev. John M. Henderson, D. D., of Parkersburg, reporter to church periodicals; the Rev. G. Horace Jenkins, of Weston, reporter to local papers, and the Rev. N. W. Brown, B. S. D. D. Choler.

After the organization was perfected the reports from the various charges were given which showed an increase in the church along all lines. A recess was taken.

The afternoon session was largely taken up discussing the moral, spiritual and educational conditions of the race through the state.

Under the head of the latter the public schools came in for a large share. There was naught but praise for the school system of West Virginia.

A committee was appointed to draft resolutions, appropriately setting forth the recognition of and appreciation for what the state is doing for the race through the schools. The Rev. Mr. Brown, the Rev. Mr. Gow, and the Rev. Mr. Jenkins compose the committee.

The day was appropriately closed with preaching at 8:30.

The Rev. J. M. Henderson, D. D., after an inspiring song and devotional service conducted by the Revs. Brown and J. T. Gibbons preached an inspiring and up-lifted sermon, based upon Luke 7:11-18.

Among other things the speaker said that in the compassion of Jesus we see Him as a man. In His power to call from the dead we see Him as God. He closed with the thought that we should be encouraged by the fact that there is the hope and evidence of the resurrection unto life eternal.

Thus ended a day fraught with interest and inspiration.

Tonight, greeting from the local church. Mayor G. H. Gordon will be present to address the conference. A hearty welcome to all.

RICHWOOD NINE

Will Play Norwood Team Sunday Afternoon; Excursion Coming from Richwood.

Sunday promises to be a banner day for the Norwood Park baseball team as it will meet the strong Richwood baseball team which is a picked team from the four teams in the city league in that town. In connection with the game the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company will operate an excursion between Richmond and this city Sunday which is sure to bring at least 1,000 rabid baseball fans from that section of the state.

Realizing that it will have the hardest game of the season the Norwood team is practicing every evening this week and with Whitney in the box the locals will make the Richwood players step if they want to carry a victory home with them.

Manager Denham of the Norwood team has had a force of men busy at the park all this week and he guarantees that none of the spectators will be allowed on the playing field Sunday. He has had lines put up on each side of the field extending from the players' bench to the fence in right and left fields and no one will be allowed to get inside the lines.

Manager Denham also announced Wednesday that he would have a more competent umpire for the contest Sunday.

HUGHES

Is Visited by Men Who Had Previously Visited Roosevelt at Oyster Bay.

NEW YORK, June 15.—With no definite appointment in prospect during the day but prepared to confer with many callers with political and personal mission, Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for president, entered his headquarters here shortly before noon. He had spent the early hours opening letters and telegrams which arrived overnight. These have come in such volume that he has decided that it will be physically impossible for him to answer the majority of them.

Everett H. Colby and Theodore E. Robinson, called on Mr. Hughes at the noon hour and had a lengthy conference with him. They declined to discuss the report that they were making efforts to bring Colonel Roosevelt and Mr. Hughes together.

They had pledged their support to Mr. Hughes, the said, and Mr. Colby announced he intended to do all he could to enlist the support of the Progressives.

DECISION RESERVED.

Mrs. Edward Stanley and John Murray were tried in Magistrate J. V. Carter's court Tuesday evening on a peace warrant sworn out by Riley McClelland, charging Mrs. Stanley and Mr.

Murray with threatening to do him and his son, Leroy McClelland, bodily harm. Magistrate Carter reserved his decision in the case until he had had time to further consider the evidence.

SLIGHTLY IMPROVED.

James Greenwood, Jr., of Duncan avenue, Stealey Heights, who has been seriously ill for two weeks with typhoid fever, is slightly improved. His many friends hope that he will have a speedy recovery.
